I found the best scenery to fly around the Alps, and Val d'Aosta is by far the best one (you can download the scenery here However, some of the models are not correct, and the airports are not completely accurate. If you need a more detailed model, you'll have to make a world yourself. I hope that helps. A: Check out the scenery dubbed Val D'Aosta-Alpi Orientale and SimuScenery. The scenery package includes a detailed airport, a large-scale mountainside scenery, and a scenery of the city of Chambéry. All in a good quality and a great overview. Val D'Aosta-Alpi Orientale is the better package for FSX, though for P3D, I've had some good results with Val D'Aosta-Alpi Orientale (and SimuScenery). Q: How can I get the month of a certain date with SQL? I have a table that includes a column with dates. I want to create a function that returns the month of the date in that column. For example: Date: | Month: 1/1/2015 | 1 2/1/2015 | 2 3/1/2015 | 3 4/1/2015 | 4 5/1/2015 | 5 6/1/2015 | 6 etc. I'd like it to return 1 in January 2015, 2 in February 2015, etc. Any help would be appreciated. A: If you're using the default SQL Server date format, you can use DatePart: select DatePart(mm, datecolumn) from table A: There is a really easy way to do this. SELECT date_column,

As a default the scenery is in 1x1 resolution, but you can change the resolution of the scenario and all other. Not included in the base FSX. Más pesos, más recursos, más contenidos. La última etapa de la campaña se caracterizó por ese enrevesado desembarco de otros partidos políticos en la campaña electoral federal. Una paradoja: si se demarca como una especie de llamada a la austeridad para salvaguardar los servicios públicos, el PAN y el PRD han ofrecido muchas cosas. En cambio, el PRI, que tuvo que conformarse con financiar la campaña sin mayores ofertas, hoy reparte la pobreza con una progresividad que haría un sorprendido. Al cierre de la campaña, el PAN ha ofrecido como cosa que ofrece el partido en la calle, la fusión del proyecto de ley que presentará la senadora Claudia Sheinbaum (Morena) con la
