Jimmie Lee CAMP, Petitioner-Appellant, v. Stephen T. SMITH, Warden, Attorney General, Respondents-Appellees. No. 93-2674. United States Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit. April 7, 1994. Before: MERRITT, Chief Judge; NORRIS and SUHRHEINRICH, Circuit Judges. ORDER 1 Jimmie Lee Camp, a pro se Michigan prisoner, appeals a district court judgment dismissing his petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Sec. 2254. The case has been referred to a panel of the court pursuant to Rule 9(a), Rules of the Sixth Circuit. Upon examination, this panel unanimously agrees that oral argument is not needed. Fed.R.App.P. 34(a). 2 In his petition, Camp challenged his conviction and sentence imposed in 1987 after he pleaded guilty to manufacturing a controlled substance, M.C.L. Sec. 333.7401. He argued that he was entitled to be resentenced under the sentencing guidelines, because the trial judge had not informed him of his right to a jury trial on the issue of his prior convictions, as required by the then-mandatory Sentencing Guidelines. The district court dismissed the petition as time-barred. 3 On appeal, Camp argues that the district court erred in determining that his petition was time-barred. 4 Upon review, we affirm the district court's judgment because Camp has not shown that he was entitled to habeas relief. See Lundy v. Campbell, 888 F.2d 467, 469-70 (6th Cir.1989), cert. denied 2d92ce491b
