The Harmses note that it is generally held that a plaintiff's failure to sue within the period of limitations does not toll the period. See, e.g., Pecoraro v. Missouri Pacific Railroad Co., 680 S.W.2d 16, 18 (Mo.App.1984). But this court has held that where a defendant has been aware of a plaintiff's cause of action for over six years and plaintiff has in fact brought suit within the six-year period, the tolling of the statute of limitations for non-service due to inability to do so is the rule and not the exception. *1391 McCarty v. Henderson, 751 S.W.2d 887, 889 (Mo.App.1988). We held that under these circumstances plaintiff is not required to show
